HERALDIC COAT OF ARMS GIFTS

THE ART OF HERALDRY was developed to its highest form during the Crusades (1096-1270). The knights who rode forth to battle were encased in heavy armor, and to identify themselves, they decorated their shields with personal devices or insignia. The term "Coat of Arms" derives from the practice of displaying such insignia on the surcoat worn over a suit of armor. IN THE BEGINNING only those who fought were allowed to wear such devices. However, when artillery made armor obsolete, shields lost their military significance, coats of arms became family symbols, handed down with pride thru generations! IN TODAY'S CHANGING WORLD the display of one's coat of arms indicates family stability reaching back thru the centuries. Interest in heraldry is becoming increasingly widespread! YOU CAN PROUDLY DISPLAY A "COAT OF ARMS" CREST on the items offered if Your Name is listed below! Each will be decorated with the specified name. Ceramic-and tile pieces have crest fired under glaze, jewelry is engraved. Your satisfaction is guaranteed! SPECIFY ONE OF THE NAMES FROM THE LIST!
